

was established under Atak Group of Companies in 1995, and has developed its service network in time also on System and Product Certification, International Inspection and Periodical Controls.

Central office of GCN TURK is in Istanbul. There are several “Service Offices” in many cities where on-site and instant service principles are offered. In İstanbul premises, existing Test and Laboratory facilities are expanded in testing of other products, and a big laboratory is currently being built in the Industrial Zone of İstanbul.

GCN TURK offers certification, testing and inspection services according to national and international accreditations in a wide range, like aviation sector, mining to maritime, construction materials to food industry, energy to metallurgy, textile to chemistry, ceramics to machine certification.

www.gcnturk.com

GCN Turk is MIRTEC’s representative office in Turkey for inspections, testing and certification activities.